Description

Friends is an American situation comedy about six friends living in the same apartment complex in Manhattan. It originally aired on NBC from September 22, 1994 - May 6, 2004, lasting ten seasons. The ensemble cast includes Jennifer Aniston, Courteney Cox, Lisa Kudrow, Matt LeBlanc, Matthew Perry and David Schwimmer.

Rachel introduction

A fashion enthusiast and Monica Geller's best friend from childhood. She ran out from her own wedding and starts to live with Monica and the gang.

Phoebe introduction

A masseuse and self-taught musician. She has an identical twin named Ursula, who shares Phoebe's traits. She used to be Monica's roommate but moved out because of Monica's obsessive personality.

Monica introduction

The mother hen of the group and a chef, known for her perfectionist, bossy, competitive, and obsessive-compulsive nature.

Ross introduction

Monica Geller's older brother, a palaeontologist working at the Museum of Natural History, and later a tenured professor of paleontology at the New York University.

Chandler introduction

Ross's college roommate. An executive in statistical analysis and data reconfiguration for a large, multinational corporation. Chandler hates this job, although it pays well. Chandler has a peculiar family history being the son of an erotic novelist mother and a gay, cross-dressing Las Vegas star father. Chandler is known for his sarcastic sense of humor and bad luck in relationships.

Joey introduction

A struggling actor and food lover who becomes famous for his role on soap opera Days of Our Lives as Dr. Drake Ramoray. Joey has many short-term girlfriends. Despite his womanizing, Joey is innocent, caring, and well-intentioned.

The 'Friends' Pop-up in New York City

<https://www.bustle.com/p/the-friends-25th-anniversary-pop-up-in-nyc-will-send-fans-straight-back-to-the-90s-18364694>

To celebrate the milestone anniversary of the legendary show, Superfly and Warner Bros. are teaming up to create an immersive pop-up experience which will run from Sept. 7 to Oct. 6, as reported by E! News. Of course, the pop-up will be located in New York City, where the show was set, because any other locale would just be downright inappropriate. And the space just might bring tears of nostalgia to your eyes.

The pop-up experience will let fans enter the world of Rachel, Monica, Phoebe, Chandler, Ross, and Joey for themselves. Each character will have a separate space dedicated to them, according to E!, complete with props and costumes from the show, and there will be a re-creation of the gang's hangout spot, Central Perk. I can smell the coffee already.

The Coffee Bean & Tea Leaf Pop-Up in Los Angeles

There are two Coffee Bean & Tea Leaf locations in Los Angeles that are turning their space into a real-life Central Perk from Aug. 16 through Aug. 23. It'll be well-worth booking the adventure trip you've had on your mind, and making a Friends-related pit stop.

According to E! News, there will be lots of opportunities to take Instagram-worthy pictures with the orange couch and specialty drinks that are going to be on the menu. You may want to order "The Rachel Matcha Latte," "The Joey Mango Cold Brew Tea," or "The Monica Midnight Mocha Cold Brew."

The two locations featuring the pop-up are at 8793 Beverly Blvd in West Hollywood, and then 1312 Third Street Promenade in Santa Monica, and both will be open between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. from August 16 through August 23. However, for those fans who won't be able to make it to a Coffee Bean & Tea Leaf in Los Angeles, Friends-themed coffee and products will be available online at coffeebean.com.

A "Friends 25th: The One with The Anniversary" Screening

<https://www.fathomevents.com/events/friends-25th-anniversary>

In more than 1,000 theaters throughout the U.S., there will be 12 episodes of Friends screened across three days, as reported by Mashable. You and your besties can head to a participating theater on Sept. 23, Sept. 28, and Oct. 2., to see the characters you love navigate the "real world" in New York City on the big screen.

Make sure to get to the theater early for special content beginning approximately 10-15 minutes prior to showtime, including de-archived Friends interview footage, shot by Extra during the first week of production on the Friends set. See and hear from the actors and go behind the scenes in this never-before-seen material. This bonus content is consistent across all three nights and will be followed by four unique episodes hand-picked by the Friends producers, which have been meticulously upgraded to 4K for an amazing theatrical experience.

Night One: The One Where Monica Gets a Roommate, The One with the Blackout, The One With The Birth, The One Where Ross Finds Out

Night Two: The One With the Prom Video, The One Where No One's Ready, The One The Morning After, The One With The Embryos

Night Three: The One With Chandler In A Box, The One With Ross's Wedding Part 2, The One Where Everyone Finds Out, The One Where Ross Got High

The famous orange couch from Central Perk is traveling around the world this fall

Per USA Today, replicas of the iconic Central-Perk orange couch are going on tour starting this month and they'll be on the move throughout the fall.

This month alone, one of the couches will be at New York City near the Empire State Building and one will be at Jackson Square in New Orleans.

USA Today has a full list of where the couch will be traveling and it includes places like London, Madrid, and Los Angeles.

Blue Man Group - Blue Friends Couch

The world-famous Blue Man Group may not be able to pivot a couch, but they sure can paint one. From their home at Luxor, the enigmatic Blue Men will transform the iconic orange Central Perk sofa in a way that only this bald and blue trio could. Their newly painted creation will be on display inside Luxor on Saturday, Oct. 19.

Pottery Barn recently announced a 25th-anniversary collection in honor of the show

True "Friends" fans will remember the season-six episode aptly titled, "The One with the Apothecary Table," when Rachel purchased the not-so-unique piece from Pottery Barn despite Phoebe's disdain for the home-furnishing retailer.

Well, you too can get the classic table from "the days of yore" along with several other accent items from Pottery Barn's 25th-anniversary "Friends" collection.

The collection also includes items with iconic "Friends" quotes like "You're my lobster" and memorable imagery, like the purple door.
